Expectations for the SET To learn the procedures and processes that take place during an emergency and how amateur radio complements these.

What Occured The experience that was gained was extremely valuable especially to hams that have not been exposed to this type of event.

What Went Well and Why The teamwork at our unit was a surprise to me. The more experienced operators were more than willing to let the inexperienced take some responsibility w/ their guidance.

Improving Operation and How Net control circuit should be used at a minimum for handling routine traffic.

I, personally need to have an better understanding of the WINDLINK circuit.
